

(ii) Multiple participants. A petition for multiple participants may be denied in whole or in part.

(9) Revocation of approval of petition—(i) General. The petitioner shall immediately notify the Service of any changes in the employment of a participant which would affect eligibility under paragraph (q) of this section.

(ii) Automatic revocation. The approval of any petition is automatically revoked if the qualifying employer goes out of business, files a written withdrawal of the petition, or terminates the approved international cultural exchange program prior to its expiration date.

(iii) Revocation on notice. The director shall send the petitioner a notice of intent to revoke the petition in whole or in part if he or she finds that:

- (A) The participant is no longer employed by the petitioner in the capacity specified in the petition, or if the participant is no longer receiving training as specified in the petition;
- (B) The statement of facts contained in the petition was not true and correct;
- (C) The petitioner violated terms and conditions of the approved petition;
- (D) The approval of the petition violated paragraph (q) of this section or involved gross error.

(iv) Notice and decision. The notice of intent to revoke shall contain a detailed statement of the grounds for the revocation and the time period allowed for the petitioner's rebuttal. The petitioner may submit evidence in rebuttal within 30 days of receipt of the notice. The director shall consider all relevant evidence presented in deciding whether to revoke the petition in whole or in part. If the petition is revoked in part, the remainder of the petition shall remain approved and a revised approval notice shall be sent to the petitioner with the revocation notice.

(v) Appeal of a revocation of a petition. A petition that has been revoked on notice in whole or in part may be appealed to the Associate Commissioner for Examinations under Part 103 of this chapter. Automatic revocation may not be appealed.

(10) Extension of stay. An alien's total period of stay in the United States under section 101(a)(15)(Q) cannot exceed fifteen (15) months. The authorized stay of an alien in Q status may be extended within the 15-month limit if he or she is the beneficiary of a new petition filed in accordance with paragraph (q)(3) of this section. The new petition, if filed by the same employer, should include a copy of the previous petition's approval notice and a letter from the petitioner indicating any terms and conditions of the previous petition that have changed.

(11) Employment provisions—(i) General. An alien classified under section 101(a)(15)(Q) of the Act may be employed only by the qualified employer through which the alien attained the status, as a condition of his or her admission, or subsequent change to such classification. An alien in this class is not required to apply for an employment authorization document. Employment outside the specific program is in violation of the alien's Q nonimmigrant status within the meaning of section 241(a)(1)(C)(i) of the Act.

(ii) Wages and working conditions. The wages and working conditions of participants classified under section 101(a)(15)(Q) must be comparable to those accorded to local domestic workers similarly employed in the geographical area of the alien's employment. A statement by the employer certifying that such conditions are met must be attached to the petition on Form I-129 as required by paragraph (q)(4)(ii) of this section.

Texas; Final Authorization of State Hazardous Waste Management Program

AGENCY: Environmental Protection Agency.

ACTION: Immediate final rule.

SUMMARY: Texas has applied for final authorization of revisions to its hazardous waste program under the Resource Conservation and Recovery Act (RCRA). The Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) has reviewed the Texas application and has made a decision, subject to public review and comment, that the Texas hazardous waste program revision satisfies all of the requirements necessary to qualify for final authorization. Thus, EPA intends to approve the Texas hazardous waste program revisions, subject to the authority retained by EPA in accordance with the Hazardous and Solid Waste Amendments for 1984. The Texas application for program revision is available for public review and comment.

DATES: Final authorization for Texas shall be effective on October 21, 1991 unless EPA publishes a prior Federal Register action withdrawing this immediate final rule. All comments on the Texas program revision application must be received by the close of business September 21, 1991.

ADDRESSES: Copies of the Texas program revision application and the
